More than 50 golfers competed in the first-ever "Twilight Tournament" at Gaash Golf Club on Wednesday.

The prize presentation ceremony for the nine-hole individual Stableford tournament was held in a postcard-perfect setting, on the patio of the Albatross Bistro Bar as the sun set.

Greg Kopels won the A-Division for handicaps 0-18, with 21 Stableford points. Newly elected club captain Avi Dagan finished in second with 19 points.

Eli Shetayat (20) edged Lulu Press (18) for the B-Division title.

Roz Brodie and Marianne Baumeyer topped the women's knock-out match play pairs competition, followed by Hadasa Alon and Anthia Silove.

The Gaash Golf Club has acquired the franchise for the lucrative "International Pairs" Competition, which the club will host in July.

The winners of this tournament will participate in The International Pairs 2006 World Final, to be held in Wales on the Celtic Manor course.
